URRBRAE OLD SCHOLARS ASSOCIATION

- The association is made up of financial members of past students who received their education at Urrbrae and who wish to show their allegiance to the school and support to the students present and future.

Why have an Old Scholars Association?

- To enable students once they have completed their education at Urrbrae to continue their involvement with the school and its community.
- To enable the school to keep in contact with students once they have left and to follow their career paths.
- To allow the school to contact past students to ask for support either financially or their expertise.

What are the benefits of being a member of the Association?

- Regular newsletters with Old Scholars news
- Invitations to Old Scholars events
- Current news of the school
- News of other Old Scholars
- Regular organised reunions and tours of the school

Management

The committee is elected from members at the Annual General Meeting.

The committee comprises of:

- Patron
- President
- Vice President
- Treasurer
- Other elected members
- School representative

Ordinary members may also attend committee meetings.

Objects and Purpose

- (a) The Association shall assist with the preservation and development of the history of the school.
- (b) Encourage donations for the benefit of students and the school.
- (c) Help provide financial assistance for research and scholarships in studies undertaken by students at the school.
- (d) Encourage a strong membership providing any member does not bring into ill repute the Association or the school.
- (e) Encourage and assist with class reunions.
- (f) Produce regular newsletters which are issued to members and friends of the Old Scholars or Friends of Urrbrae.
